MYSA-SCSL Code of Conduct

<https://www.mayouthsoccer.org/codes-of-conduct/>

- Player's Code of Conduct
- Coach's Code of Conduct
- Parent's / Guardian's / Spectator's Code of Conduct
- Soccer Officials Code of Conduct

☞ We stress two points:

- Referees - especially young and inexperienced ones - are like your players and yourself, in that they need time to develop. You can play an important role in helping them to improve by letting them concentrate on the game. You can help by encouraging them by accepting their inevitable, occasional mistakes and by offering constructive post game comments.
- On the other hand, you could discourage and demoralize the referees by criticizing their decisions, by verbally abusing them and inciting - or even accepting - your own players' overly aggressive behavior.

☞ Your example is powerful, for better or worse. If you insist on fair play, if you concentrate on your players' enjoyment of the game and their overall, long term development, and if you support the referee, your players and their parents will notice.

☞ If you encourage (or allow) your players to play outside the rules, if you're overly concerned about results, and if you criticize the referee harshly, your players and their parents will also notice.

☞ Think about what you're doing during a game! Uphold the Spirit of the Game! If you follow the expectations described above, the spirit of the game will be alive and well in Massachusetts and will grow, along with the enjoyment of all.

☞ Coaches who don't follow the expectations described above will be disciplined or removed.
